"It is really quite pleasant. There are many green areas and this gives us a good view of the city. Quite impressive and peaceful. I really liked it (...). I was amazed by what I saw" Larrie Stewbright, 24 years old, England

"It is really, really, really cool! The perfect place to interact with science and learn while playing. A place that is astounding." Irene Guimarães

"One has the impression that São Paulo is just a work and business city but in reality it isn't. São Paulo holds treasures for those who try to find them." Alfredo Sampaio Carrijo, 61 anos, Campo Grande – MS

"The air is pure, the climate is pleasant, the landscape is breathtaking and the environment is quite homely." Miguel Basilio, 29 years old

"Seeing most of the city, with its skyscrapers, trees and houses covered by the night, while the sun sets and says goodbye over the horizon, coloring the sky with tonalities is really amazing." Alex de Miranda, 23 years old

"The adrenaline of the sellers in the famous 'zepa' time in the CEAGESP (open market for fruit, vegetables and alike), on Saturdays and Sundays, is a unique sounding experience and linked to the Paulistanos' spirit of business." Vinicius Saraceni, 31 years old

"The city of São Paulo is frenzy. Be careful: it is addictive!" Patrícia Furquim, 49 years old

"The Parque Burle Marx is a portion of tranquility and meekness. It is so incredibly pleasant that you can hardly hear the sound of cars passing by (...). It is an excellent refuge." Diego Santos, 25 years old

"Rivers, landscapes, animals and the local flora. All of this inside one of the largest cities in the world!" Adriano de Oliveira Valle

"Watching a Formula 1 Grand Prix in Interlagos and hearing the sound of the engines like music at 180 mph on the main straight... is electrifying!" Rogério Saraiva, 43 years old

"There is nothing more pleasant that stopping on the banks of the Nova Guarapiranga dam and watching the sail boats illuminated by the sun's rays coloring the landscape." Célia, 48 anos

"The view of garden of Solo Sagrado is simply fantastic! Prototype of paradise on Earth." Elsa, 45 years old

"This was the first time that I ever watched a football (soccer) match in Brazil and it was a huge moment in my life." Hussein, 24 anos, Costa do Marfim

"If you only watch Carnival on TV, you have no idea of the emotion that we feel when the drum corps of the samba schools parade by. You feel bigger, the sound invades your soul and heart." Amália Dal Bello, 35 anos

"Traces of the master architect Oscar Niemeyer are all around. There is always something to do – shows at accessible prices, courses, gallery shows and activities for the little ones." Camila F., 37 anos

"On hearing the sounds of the São Paulo Symphonic Orchestra – OSESP – performing in the Sala São Paulo, your imagination soar betweens fantasy and the magic of the compositions." Andrea

"It not only rescued my dormant memory, but also the memories of wonderful times with my family gathered around the TV watching our favorite soccer team." Irene da Rocha

"This was the first time that I ever watched a football (soccer) match in Brazil and it was a huge moment in my life." Hussein, 24 anos, Costa do Marfim

"The perfume that the books exhale bring me peace, tranquility..." Cristina, 45 years old

"At the Masp, you realize that this is the cultural capital of Latin America!" Lucia, 55 anos

"The temperature changes once you enter the park. (...) The sound of the ears blotted out by the sound of the birds in Autumn..." Edson

"There is nothing better than to savor a delicious dish, from an exclusive menu, also giving many children the opportunity of savoring a beautiful meal. I will not forget Restaurant Week!" Fernanda De Camillis, 19 years old

"The GLBT Pride Parade is an incredible and unique experience. Just in São Paulo, we celebrate with 3 million people and the joy of living human diversity." Franco Reinaudo, 46 years old

"Infinite sensations created by the curves of Niemeyer, by the movement of cyclists, the sun on your body and the cold breeze under the marquise in the direction of the new Bienal. Hot, cold, sensational." Adriana Tabacniks

"(...) flying over the city at night we only saw lights, lights and more lights. It looked like a 'Starry Floor'. When we noticed this we were all applauding! I believe that we were missing this incredible City and the love we feel for it!" Graciara Cabrera

"Play Me, I'm Yours" Projeto Piano de Rua (Street Piano Project), Estação da Luz.

"We absorb the essence of each word and each phrase, which penetrate our being, and touch our soul in a sublime and unforgettable way!" Vanessa Guerra, 22 years old

"An explosion of senses – wonderful smells (...). The taste of fresh fruit, of cold beer, of the freshly made food. Colored vision of Brazilian abundance, of people, of the stained glass windows." Anneliese Martins, 43 years old
